Schedule

Friday
Sessions defined (come prepared with ideas!)

Saturday
9:30am - 10:15am Breakout session #1

Sunday
9:00am - 9:45am Breakout session #2

What is an “unconference”?
Sessions are proposed and led by attendees. They are hands-on, casual, and fun! All the sessions are open for attendees to define, describe, and lead. Organize solo, or collaborate. Possible formats include: a short slide presentation followed by a discussion, an organized panel discussion, or a wide-open brainstorm. It’s important to make your chosen format clear, so that participants know what to expect ahead of time.

How to Propose a Session
Show up to Friday night’s dinner with your session in mind. Head to the MiniCamp table, grab a piece of paper, and describe your session. Don’t be shy about it! You are interesting and your work/idea is compelling and people will want to hear what you have to share. Your note must include:

- Session title
- Your name
- What kind of session it is (panel, brainstorm, Q&A, presentation)
- More info about session, including other co-presenters

If you plan to propose a session, please notify Alyssa at alyssaryan@umass.edu by November 13th.

All sessions will be gathered on Friday evening and four to six sessions will be organized to be presented during Saturday’s two breakout times (two to three sessions per breakout time period). These sessions and times will be emailed Friday evening and set up on a board on Saturday morning to refer to during the event.
Since this is SaferSim, should these sessions be focused on simulation, safety, and/or current projects?

No, but they can be if you would like! Topics from electric vehicles to drones to transportation policy can be proposed - anything that you think would be interesting!

I'm still not sure how this works/I have an idea, but I'm not sure how it fit into a session

You can read more about TransportationCamp, which this is based off of here: transportationcamp.org/2011/02/how-transportationcamp-works-the-essential-guide/

You can also reach out to the organizers of this event, Alyssa at alyssaryan@umass.edu or Katerina at adeliali@umass.edu. We can help you form your idea into a session, answer questions, or help you with anything MiniCamp-related!

Session Content Info

Before leading a session, know that you have the responsibility for the content and format. Make sure expectations are clear from the start of the session (e.g. state that you are going to present slides for 5-10 minutes, then lead a discussion). If you can, work towards tangible outcomes!
Virtual Student Poster Session & Competition

Saturday, November 17th
2:00pm to 4:00pm

Present your SaferSim research, gain feedback, and compete in the poster competition.

No need to print your poster! Your poster will be presented on a screen, as shown above. While any typical aspect ratio will work, please do not exceed the maximum screen width of 56 inches and height of 32 inches.

Please bring your poster on a USB to the session.

If you would like us to try out your poster on a screen before arriving, please send it to mknodler@umass.edu
