

SAFER-SIM Symposium

October 13, 2019
University of Iowa
Iowa City, IA

Please join SAFER-SIM University Transportation Center for a symposium hosted by the University of Iowa. The symposium is planned to be adjacent to the Road Safety and Simulation 2019 conference. Our focus for this symposium is on professional development. Workshop topics include professional networking, creating a CV, career opportunities, simulation as a research tool, and operational definitions of driving performance measures. Registration, travel and lodging information, and agenda are below.

Please send any questions to Dawn Marshall (dawn-marshall@uiowa.edu or 319-335-4774)

We hope to see you in Iowa City!
